STANDING ORDER GOVERNING STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE UNION

GENERAL

The Constitution of HUU allows for the Union Executive Committee to form standing committees to deal with any matters they see fit. The list of Standing Committees to which this regulation applies is detailed in Annex A.

1. Application: These Standing Orders are to apply, unless otherwise prescribed, to all standing committees, hereinafter referred to as committees and are to be interpreted in such a manner as not to conflict with the Constitution and Bye Laws of Hull University Union (HUU).
2. Responsibilities: All committees are to be ultimately responsible to Council for the proper execution of their duties and responsibilities, and for any transaction undertaken in their name. In practice, the committee will be responsible in the first place to their respective Zone.
3. Affiliation: No committee may affiliate to any outside organisation without the express agreement of UEC and the Trustees.
4. Terminology: The following terms apply to all Standing Orders
 - a. A reference to the 'committee' shall refer to all those students who are members of the committee in the relevant Standing Orders.
 - b. A reference to the 'executive committee' shall refer to members of the committee, who have been elected by either cross campus ballot, by members of the committee or by the Zone to fill casual vacancies.
 - c. A reference to 'members' shall refer to student members of the committee
 - d. Clear days shall not include Saturday, Sunday or Public Holidays.
 - e. Ex officio – a student who is a member through the position for which they have been elected e.g. Chair Women's Committee

- f. Authorising officers and officials are as defined in Standing Order 9001 Financial Procedures.

REPORT AND PLAN

5. Each Committee at the first Zone meeting of the semester shall produce to the Zone, a plan of its activities for that semester. At the last Zone meeting of a semester each Committee shall report to the Zone on the activities of the Committee.

MEMBERSHIP

6. Voting Members: Each committee or executive committee may be elected in the following ways.
- a. Ex officio (Chair); such members are elected by cross campus ballot.
 - b. Members elected by the committee (the executive committee) and ratified by the Zone; ratification is to take place, the committee having previously held the elections, normally at the last Zone meeting of the Semester so that the committee members are in place for the start of the new academic year. In the event of a casual vacancy arising during a session, this shall be filled at the subsequent committee meeting and ratified at the next Zone meeting.
 - c. In the event of an ex officio casual vacancy arising during a session, this is to be filled by a bye-election or a member of the executive will be co-opted at the next committee meeting and ratified by the following Zone meeting, provided that the vacancy has been notified and appears on the Agenda.

All such members must be full members of Union.

7. Non-voting members: Each committee may have the following categories of non-voting members.
- a. General member; any member of Union may join the committee as a non-voting member.
 - b. Co-option; a committee shall have power to co-opt such persons as it deems fit to be ratified by the relevant zone.
 - c. Members of staff; as detailed in the relevant Standing Orders.

8. Membership lists: The secretary of each committee is responsible for maintaining the membership list. A copy of the list is to be lodged with the HUU and amended as necessary from time to time. The membership list held by the HUU is to be used for election purposes (see paragraph 9 below).

9. Election of to specified positions on a committee or executive committee: The election to specified positions is either by cross campus election (see SO 8001), or by the committee with ratification by the relevant Zone. For those voting members elected by the committee, the following procedures apply.
 - a. Returning Officer: The Union Executive Committee (UEC), is to nominate a returning officer.

 - b. Notification The returning officer is responsible for publishing the date and place of the elections, together with posts to be elected. Such notice is to be displayed on the website, at least three clear days prior to the election.

 - c. Electorate: All full members of Union registered as members of the Committee at the time notification is posted are eligible to vote, unless otherwise prescribed in the relevant Standing Order.

 - d. Vote: The vote is by simple majority. Where there are 3 or more candidates, and the candidate with the most votes does not have more than 50% of the votes cast in the first round, then further rounds of voting will take place with the candidate(s) with the least number of votes dropping out after each round. This procedure will cease when a candidate has passed the Quota or if 2 candidates are left, the one with the most votes will be the winner

10. Notification of casual ex officio vacancies - elected by the Zone: Notification of committee vacancies elected by the relevant Zone is to be prominently displayed hullstudent.com at least three clear days before the Zone meeting at which the elections is to take place. The Student Officer is responsible for posting such notification.

11. Resignation: Any member of a committee wishing to resign is to send a letter of resignation to the Student Officer responsible. The UEC is to be informed of all such resignations and take steps to fill the post at the earliest opportunity, in accordance with this Standing Order.

MEETINGS

12. Calling a meeting: Committee meetings are to be called by the chairperson of the committee, or at the written request of at least three voting members of the committee.
13. Notice of meetings: Notice of meeting is to be sent by the chairperson or secretary to all committee members and posted on the Union Official Notice Boards and by email to the membership three clear days in advance.
14. Attendance of voting members: Any voting member of the executive committee who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the committee, other than for reasons of health, or University or Union business, is deemed to have resigned. Apologies for non-attendance due to these reasons should be submitted to the Chairperson of the committee at least one clear day before a meeting is due to take place, whenever possible.
15. Attendance of non voting members: Any full member of Union may attend a meeting of a committee except as detailed below.
- a. Union Executive Committee; this committee may move into closed session to discuss a specific issue, subject to:
 - (1) The matter having initially been discussed, and evidence or representations received from interested parties where appropriate, in open session;
