Volunteer of the Year: The John Franks Memorial Award

Awarded to the volunteer who has made an outstanding overall contribution to the life of students at the University of Hull. The John Franks' Award is dedicated to the memory of John Franks, Head of the University Careers service for over 30 years. He was a great supporter of Hull University Union and was responsible for personally helping thousands of Hull students and graduates with their careers. Following John's sudden death in 2008, John's family kindly made a significant donation to support this award for the foreseeable future

Shortlist: Loria Mae Heywood, Rhoda Roberts, Samraj Singh Bhullar

The Julie Watson Memorial Award

Awarded to the volunteer who has made the biggest positive impact on the development of other students through Hull University Union activity. This award is dedicated to the memory of Julie Watson, former Director of Membership Services and HR. In almost ten years of service with Hull University Union, she made an enormous contribution to the development of the organisation and the staff who work here. "Julie loved to develop our staff and see them improve. Many of our staff are doing jobs they would never have believed themselves capable of without Julie's constant encouragement. As a result everyone thought the world of her and this was repaid through the commitment she inspired in providing excellent service to our student members over a wide range of activities."

Shortlist: Robert Ackers, Emily Green, Daniel Ingram

Outstanding Work for the Students' Union.

Awarded to the volunteer who has delivered an outstanding campaign or project, or who has made a significant contribution through volunteering within the organisation which has enhanced Hull University Union, contributed to improving the student experience and demonstrated consistent dedication.
