1. What is the Students' Union?

Hull University Union (HUU) is the Students' Union of The University of Hull. We are a registered charity. To comply with Charity Law we need a constitution which confirms what the aims of HUU are. We have to stay within the parameters of the Constitution in everything we do.

The purpose of Hull University Union is to enhance the lives of every person studying at the University of Hull.

We will achieve this by:

- Bringing you together;
- Offering you opportunities to develop;
- Representing and empowering you to make change.

The objects do not cover the provision of commercial businesses that we run. Charities are not allowed to trade so our shop, bars and entertainments form part of a trading company (HUU Service Limited) which gives all its surpluses to HUU, the charity, to help us meet our objectives above.

The constitution can be viewed in more detail on our website:

<http://hullstudent.com/about-us/governance/articles-memorandum-of-association>

HUU is a separate entity from the University of Hull. We are led by students for students with the help of staff and selected trustees.

2. How does HUU operate?

2.1 Board of Trustees

Governance of HUU is carried out by a Board of Trustees. The composition of the Board includes five Student Officers (students) and four external Trustees selected for their skills and experience. There are also four Student Trustees, who are elected by the student body. The Board meets approximately six times per year at regular intervals to coincide with important times in the planning and reporting cycle (Annual Report and Accounts/Annual General Meeting/budgeting/Student Officer handover). The Chief Executive acts as advisor to this body.

The role of the Board of Trustees is detailed in the Constitution. The Board's main duties are:

- ensuring there are an appropriate mission, vision and values for HUU;
- approving strategy;
- meeting financial requirements of the Charity Acts and approving and monitoring planned income and expenditure; setting limits of monetary expenditure by individuals and committees;
- ensuring long term financial stability of HUU;
- ensuring resources are available to suitably staff HUU to meet the strategy;
- consulting regularly with the membership regarding strategy;
- reviewing regularly the performance of the Union Executive Committee and to act upon recommendations of Union Council;
- removing Trustees who contravene charity law;
- ensuring all recommended policy meets the objects of HUU, its strategic and financial plans and is not ultra vires.

2.2 Union Executive Committee

The Union Executive Committee (UEC), which consists of the 5 full time Student Officers, is responsible for implementing the vision, mission, values and strategy set by the Board of Trustees. The work of UEC focuses on representing students and offering organisational leadership.

The UEC will be expected to communicate progress with the strategy and plans and consult regularly with the Zones, Union Council and the membership.

The UEC meets regularly to monitor progress, agree plans and campaigns and deal with day to day issues of our members.

2.3 Student Officers

Student Officers are full-time Officers who are elected annually by the student body. They have either graduated or are taking a year out of their study to undertake a number of roles within HUU:

- Trustee – As a member of the Board of Trustees, they carry out the duties described above (see Role of the Board of Trustees).
- Representative – Each officer will contribute to the work of UEC in ensuring the collective voice of our student members is heard by the University, the local community and nationally. All positions involve representing students on University committees working with the University to improve our students' experience.
- Leader – Each Officer line-manages their zone (Governance, Education, Welfare & Community, Activities, Sport) within HUU and supports the part-time officers in achieving their goals.

2.4 Zones

To help them deliver their plans, each Student Officer has a committee called a Zone. For those students who want to take on a voluntary role within these areas, there are many positions within each zone which suit a variety of interests. There are 5 Zones in HUU: Governance, Education, Welfare & Community, Activities and Sport.

2.5 Union Council

Union Council acts as a scrutiny body and sounding board to discuss policy. In order to scrutinise the performance of the Student Officers and the individual members within their zones, the Union Council meets three times per semester and consists of the members of each zone, plus ten Councillors for Scrutiny and four Faculty Reps who sit on University Senate.

6. FAQs

How do I nominate myself for a position?

Nominations are open online via hullstudent.com/nominatenow from Wednesday, 28 February 2018, 9am until Wednesday, 7 March 2018, 3pm. You must submit your nomination within this timeframe. Nominations submitted past the deadline will not be accepted so make sure you don't wait until the last minute.

I am an international student – can I run for a Student Officer position?

Yes! If you are elected to a Student Officer position, the University enrolls you on a one-year course which means that you can apply for an extension of your Tier 4 visa. If you have any questions about the process just get in touch with us.

I am a postgraduate student – can I run for a Student Officer position?

Yes! Every student can run for a Student Officer position and that includes both taught and research postgraduates. Many other Unions have Student Officers who have graduated from their postgraduate degree or are taking a break from their studies – so why shouldn't you go for it too?

I am not in my final year of study yet – can I run for a Student Officer position?

Yes! If you haven't graduated by the time you start your term as Student Officer, the University allows you to take a "Sabbatical" from your studies. Have a chat with your School if you are unsure about any academic implications.

Do I have to write a manifesto?

As part of your online nomination you will be submitting your "Reasons for Standing". You have 1500 characters to explain to students why they should vote for you. Try to be as concise as possible and make sure you only promise realistic goals that you can achieve when elected. You will also be asked to submit a "blurb" which appears as tag line next to your name during voting and is 100 characters in length.

Is there an information meeting for candidates?

The information meeting will take place on Friday, 9 March 3-5pm in MR 1, Student Central. All Student Officer candidates must attend or send a delegate and all other candidates are strongly encouraged to attend as well. We will give you tips on campaigning, run through the election process and answer any of your questions.

When can I start campaigning?

Campaigning officially starts after the close of the All Candidates meeting on Friday, 9 March at 5pm. Make sure to plan in advance when and where you want to campaign – it's a marathon and not a sprint. Campaigning ends with the close of voting on Friday, 16 March at 5pm and all publicity must be removed by 6pm on the same date.

How much money can I spend on my campaign?

If you are a Student Officer candidate you can spend up to £75 on your campaign. All other candidates may spend up to £15. All candidates are entitled to a full reimbursement of their allocated budget by HUU. All candidates must keep within their budget and bring all receipts to the ARO before 3pm on Friday 16 March.

Will there be hustings?

There will be a Question Time for all Student Officer candidates which will take place in the form of a debate on Monday, 12 March at 6pm in MR1.

How does the voting process work?

Voting takes place online between Monday, 12 March, 9am and Friday, 16 March, 5pm on hullstudent.com/votenow.

The voting system is a transferable or preference voting system. This means that students can rank the candidates in order of preference. If no candidate gets 50% of the total votes, then the candidate with the lowest numbers is eliminated. This process carries on until a candidate gets 50% of the votes. So being someone's second preference might still mean you win your election.

All positions will have the option to vote for 'RON', which means Re-open Nominations. If RON wins, then the election will be run again at a future date.

When will results be announced?

Results will be announced on Friday, 16 March in Sanctuary from 7pm and subsequently be published online.

Bring your campaign teams along and enjoy the end of a fantastic campaign period.

Who do I contact if I have any further questions?

You can find detailed role descriptions for every position, the Rules & Regulations and other resources for candidates on our website hullstudent.com/elections18

For any further questions, get in touch with our Assistant Returning Officer (ARO) on elections@hull.ac.uk or by calling 01482 46 6246.

7. Get started on your campaign

Make a list or mind map.

Start writing down ideas of what you think needs changing in the area you are running for and think about how you can achieve these goals.

Be precise.

Be clear in what you want to achieve and how you want to achieve it so your fellow students can easily understand it.

Less is more.

Limit yourself to three or four key goals that you want to campaign on. Remember there is also a limit of 1500 characters for your "Reasons for Standing" on your nomination form.

Use your friends.

Even though you are not allowed to campaign until after the All Candidates Meeting (9 March), you can start preparing your campaign and discussing ideas with your friends/campaign team. Find out how they respond to your slogans and goals and use them as a brainstorming pool.

Find out more about your role.

Don't worry if you have never sat on Union Council or been involved otherwise. You can still come up with great policy ideas to campaign on. Chat to the current office holder to get an idea about the role and have a read through our role descriptions online on <http://hullstudent.com/elections18/roles> that provide more details about each position.

Use a theme.

Stick to a theme during your campaign in terms of colour, slogans and overall design so people can easily remember and associate your campaign with you.

Don't spam people.

Think about when and where you will be campaigning and how you would feel in that particular situation if you were to be approached by a candidate. Don't disturb your fellow students during their lunch breaks or when they are in a hurry to get to their next lecture. If you plan to go out in the evenings to campaign, stay sober because nobody likes drunk candidates.

8. How to make it through elections

Plan ahead.

It's a marathon and not a sprint. Have a look at your academic deadlines and make sure you have plenty of time to meet them before or during campaigning. Schedule in time for any other commitments you usually have, even time for doing your laundry and shopping is important. ☺

Be creative.

Campaigning usually includes posters, stickers, banners, t-shirts and the use of social media. However, the more imaginative the better! You will want to stand out from the crowd. Plus, spending more money doesn't always get you more votes.

Engage others.

The main reason people vote for a candidate is because the candidate has spoken to them about their goals. Go out and chat to students of all subjects, years, or level of study and find out what is important to them. Even if you cannot convince them to vote for you, get them excited about elections and voting and share your personal message of why getting involved in the democratic process is so important.

Everyone can win.

You don't need to have been a member of a political party or previously involved with the Union to run a successful campaign. What matters is that you are passionate about student democracy and the goals you want to achieve in your role. Be realistic and don't promise anything that you cannot live up to if elected.

Take care.

Include breaks for yourself and your team to do some fun stuff or something completely unrelated to elections. And most importantly – don't forget to eat plenty and get a good night's sleep.

If you are struggling at all during elections, get in touch with the Health and Wellbeing Service located on the 2nd floor of Student Central. They operate a daily drop in service (Monday-Friday) and there will usually be a member of the team available to see you that day. The team recommend you telephone 01482 462 222, or visit the AskHU desk on the 2nd floor of Student Central, to enquire about the specific availability for any given day, as the drop-in appointments often get busy. The drop-in appointments are up to 30 minutes long to discuss your immediate needs. Further appointments of up to 50 minutes can then be made as appropriate.

The HUU Advice Centre (1st floor Student Central) is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday 9:30am-3pm and Wednesday 12-3pm offering free, confidential and impartial advice. Drop in to see the team or email huu-advice-centre@hull.ac.uk.

Have fun.

Enjoy yourself during campaigning. You will meet great people that are just as passionate about student democracy as you are. Have fun and make it a time to remember.
