

International Students Officer

Aim

The International Students Officer is responsible for representing the interests of international students at the University of Hull.

Key responsibilities

- Attend Union Council and Education Zone meetings;
- Be a member of University Senate;
- Represent and support international students and act as a channel of communication between them, the Union and the University;
- Increase international student involvement in the Union activities and structures;
- Engage international students in the policy developments of Union Council;
- Engage others in the views of international students;
- Communicate regularly with international students on events, news and anything they may wish to get involved with.

Useful skills or characteristics

- An interest in issues affecting international students
- Have a wide outreach with the student body
- Effective time management
- Be adaptable and communicative
- Good organisational skills
- Creativity

Skills you can expect to learn and develop

- Develop communication and liaison skills
- Improve time management skills
- Gain experience organising events and running meetings

Expected time commitment

On average you will spend between 6-8 hours a week on this role. Some weeks will be more demanding than others.

Further questions

Please email the responsible President, Isobel Hall at I.Hall2@hull.ac.uk if you have any questions about the role.