

Women's Officer

Aim

The role is to represent women students at the University of Hull and work to eliminate all forms of gender disadvantage through campaigning and the provision of relevant information and events.

Key responsibilities

- Chair Women's Committee;
- Attend Union Council and the Welfare & Community Zone meetings;
- Lead campaigns and encourage other women to campaign about women's rights, issues and gender equality within Hull University Union, across the University of Hull campus, locally and nationally;
- Encourage and increase the participation and engagement of women students in Hull University Union activities;
- Promote links with other similar groups and organisations in line with Hull University Union's values, within the local community, regionally and nationally;
- Raise funds to support the aims outlined above.

Useful skills or characteristics

- Passionate and knowledgeable about women and gender issues
- Have a wide outreach with the student body
- Efficient time management
- Be adaptable and communicative
- Good organisational skills
- Creativity
- Committed to the role

Skills you can expect to learn and develop

- Develop communication and liaison skills
- Gain experience organising events and running meetings
- Improve time management skills
- Managing and encouraging volunteers

Expected time commitment

On average you will spend between 6-8 hours a week on this role. Some weeks will be more demanding than others.

Further questions

Please email the responsible President, Andy Costigan, on a.costigan@hull.ac.uk if you have any questions about the role.